

JOIN THE AUSTRALIAN SOCIETY OF ARCHIVISTS

The Australian Society of Archivists Inc. (ASA) has been the peak professional organisation for archivists in Australia since 1975. It has Branches in most states and territories and Special Interest Groups across the country.

Australian
Society of Archivists

ASA PROFESSIONAL LEARNING

The Keeping Archives eLearning series is a suite of six online, self directed courses developed by the ASA

- Designed to provide a solid introduction to archives and recordkeeping knowledge
- Each course includes exclusive video content featuring leading practitioners, interactive quiz elements and a custom certificate delivered on completion
- The six courses are: Introduction to Records and Archives, Appraisal, Context Control and Documentation, Physical Management and Preservation, Access, Digital Records and Archives

ASA online courses are available via www.archivists.org.au/learning-publications/professional-development-courses

ASA PUBLICATIONS

The ASA is the proud publisher of many internationally recognised publications and resources including:

- Keeping Archives III – authoritative and comprehensive text
- Describing Archives in Context: A Guide to Australasian Practice
- Records Retention Schedule for Non-Government Schools
- Archives and Manuscripts – the ASA's scholarly journal

ASA publications are available via www.archivists.org.au/products/shop

THE ASA AIMS TO:

- 🌀 Represent the interests of the archival and recordkeeping profession, and promote the value of archives and records in society
- 🌀 Provide and facilitate education and training for archivists and recordkeepers
- 🌀 Establish and maintain archival and recordkeeping professional standards
- 🌀 Inform and communicate within and beyond the profession

WHERE DO ASA MEMBERS WORK?

ASA members work in a wide variety of places:

- 🌀 At all levels of government
- 🌀 Universities and schools
- 🌀 Business corporations and professional and trade associations
- 🌀 Museums, manuscript libraries and collecting institutions
- 🌀 Community and religious organisations
- 🌀 Private consultants

MEMBERSHIP CATEGORIES

Membership of the ASA is open to:

- 🌀 Individuals
- 🌀 Corporate bodies

Application forms and full details on eligibility are on the ASA website www.archivists.org.au or by emailing membership@archivists.org.au

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

- 🌀 Keeping Archives III eBook
- 🌀 Professional journal Archives and Manuscripts and access to online back issues
- 🌀 Keeping Archives eLearning series available at a discounted rate
- 🌀 Discount rates for annual conference and other professional development opportunities
- 🌀 Informal mentoring by experienced professionals
- 🌀 A strong community supporting and promoting the value of archives and records in society
- 🌀 State Branch and Special Interest Group networks

CONTACT DETAILS

For further information visit the ASA website at www.archivists.org.au

Follow the ASA on

Archives Live

Facebook

Twitter

Email Addresses

Membership membership@archivists.org.au
(for membership enquiries including new memberships)

Office office@archivists.org.au
(for general enquiries)

Postal Address

Australian Society of Archivists Inc.
PO BOX 576
Crows Nest, NSW 1585

Phone

+61 2 6190 7983

ABN: 36 102 573 974 ARBN: 159 638 696

Origin: Australian Capital Territory

Liability of members is limited